Why Choose AES?

24/7 Live

No office hours or outsourced agents here. Our team of in-house experts are standing by 24/7/365 ready for your request.

Rapid Response

Our team will provide a quote/itinerary solution for your specific needs within minutes and can be on-site for pickup within an hour or less to all major hubs in the world.

Competitive Price

Our local and regional partnerships afford us the ability to offer an exceedingly more attractive rate than our other less regionally specialized competitors.

Global Coverage

We consistently utilize our extended network across the globe to ensure the same level of service no matter where our client's shipments are moving. With a strong emphasis on Asia, USA, Europe and Mexico.

Safe and Secure

Our Operations team members have combined decades of professional experience from multiple levels of responsibility. We stand ready at all times to tackle any issue or hiccup that may arise.

Live Updates

We keep you automatically updated on the status of your shipment upon every major checkpoint. Or you can ask our 24/7 operations team for any detail or update desired.

Supported Industries

Aero Expedite Solutions supports an array of industries around the globe in meeting their specific time critical logistical needs. We have handled shipments in sectors such as but not limited to:

- Automotive
- Manufacturing
- Aerospace / AOG
- Fashion and high-end merchandise
- Ship Spares

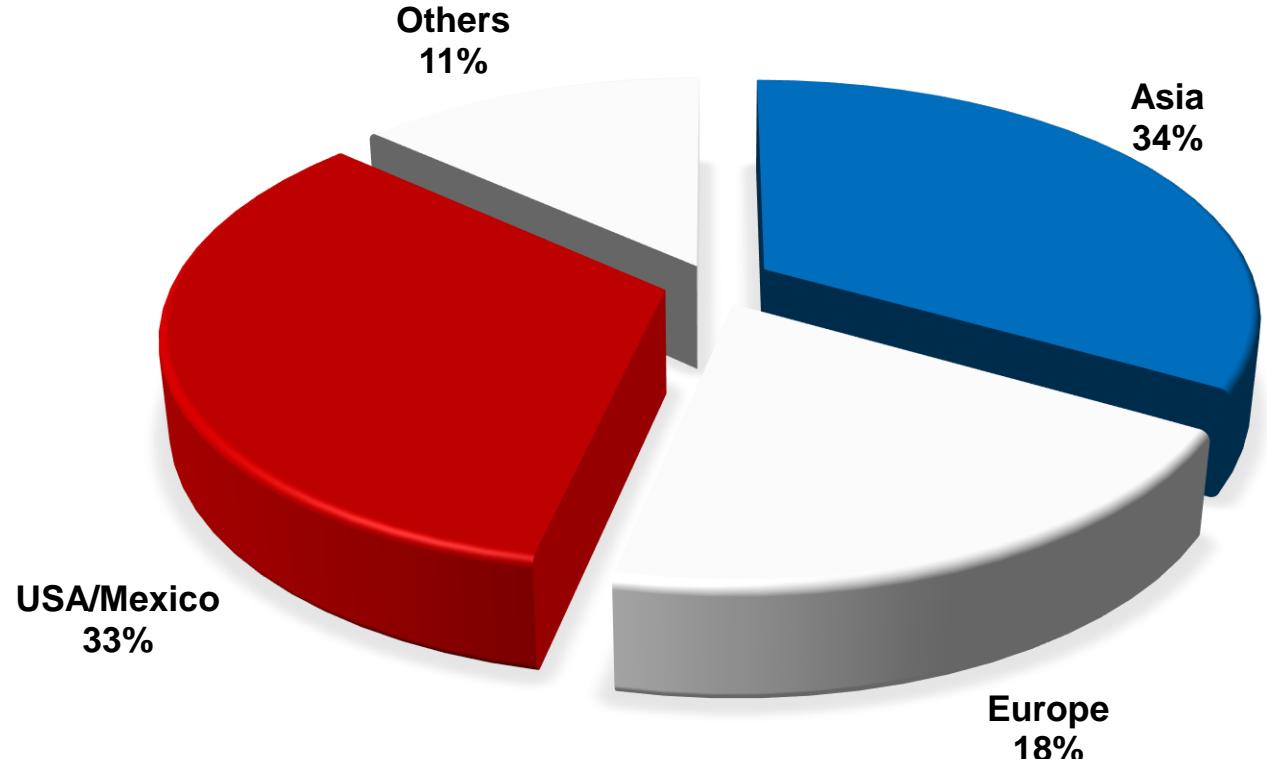

- Medical Cold Chain

On Board Couriers

The OBC, or "On Board Courier", will be the one to personally fly with our client's shipment to ensure proper handling, customs procedure, and final timely delivery of the shipment. We have a wealth of tested, well trained, and qualified OBCs on standby to meet the time critical, on-demand needs of our clients and fellow OBC companies. No matter what time zone or hemisphere, AES has OBCs ready to move at a moment's notice.

On-Demand Ground Solutions

Need us to arrange the ground logistics for initial pickup or the delivery to your exact target location? AES has a wide array of ground solutions available on-demand across the globe to handle such immediate needs. Our network stands ready to act quickly in order to schedule dedicated ground solutions to enhance the speed of our service. Utilizing dedicated direct shipping solutions, we avoid all consolidated shipments with unsure timelines.

Import/Export Customs Support

Dealing with foreign customs formalities in a time-sensitive scenario can be quite a hassle. AES has reliable brokers and partners that are available in a multitude of countries around the clock that understand the time-critical nature of our industry. AES is prepared to handle the customs and duties processing needed to keep client's paperwork to a minimum. We know how important it is to get the documentation right, and we pride ourselves on our proven record of speed and success.

Air Charter

For special projects or larger shipments, we can offer chartered flights through our extensive networks around the world. This is often the fastest option for larger or custom undertakings. Our network stands ready to offer direct air charter solutions for any occasion. Be it a private jet for a crucial business client, or a cargo plane for critically needed machinery, AES can handle any air charter request.

24/7 Support

Our team is proud to offer 24/7/365 availability to our clients for updates and immediate pricing options. AES provides full time support for every shipment we oversee. Ensuring close management of each mission, constant updates on each step of the process, and instant problem-solving support if needed. AES ensures your time critical goods are never held up or delayed.
